FRASASSI CAVES - SPECIAL WEEK END 1st MAY

The Frasassi Caves will remain open on May 1st and 2nd. Access to the visit is allowed only with the purchase of the ticket online. The Frasassi Consortium, the body that manages the underground complex, has passed the rules for the entry and use of the route.

A strong sign of resilience and a restart, for tourism in the name of safety. For this Special Week End 1st May, the Frasassi Caves are again operational for the reception and the visit of the most admired and appreciated underground route in Italy.

The territory of Genga with its vast offer, first of all the marvelous Frasassi Caves, has promptly answered a question that finds a structured and high-level destination in these areas».

The Consortium has drawn up the regulation of tourist use, which will be in force for this Special Week End 1st May.

- The entrance ticket can only be purchased online.
- In the case of online booking, the entrance coupon will be printed in advance by the customer and delivered directly to the entrance, or shown to the staff located at the entrance via mobile phone download, bypassing in each case the stop at the ticket office;
- The holder of an entrance ticket can use the car park in the La Cuna area, and then walk towards the entrance (1300m), or use the car park in San Vittore di Genga, and continue on foot (600m).
- The holder of the entrance ticket must be provided with a mask;
- To ensure adequate safety distancing, the visiting groups will be reduced in the number of components
- The visitor's body temperature will be measured with a thermoscanner. With temperatures above 37.5° it will not be possible to visit the Caves and the customer will be kindly invited to leave the entrance
- The price of the entrance ticket will remain unchanged: 18 euro full (+ dp); 15 euro reduced (+ dp); 12 euros from six to fourteen years (+ dp); free up to six years
